

Tab 1

Verse 1 – acoustic guitar + piano, confident vocal]

In the last days the warning is clear

False christs rising, signs fill the air

They come with power, they speak with fire

But the heart is cold, the spirit is liar

[Pre-Chorus – add electric guitar & light drums]

The wheat and the tares grow side by side

Miracles dazzle, but truth is denied

We test every spirit, we weigh every word

The Word is our anchor, the truth we've heard

[Chorus – full band, big drums, choir backing]

We believe, we believe

We are the anointed ones at the end time

Standing on the Word, we will not bend or climb

No compromise, no turning aside

We are the Bride, waiting for our Bridegroom's cry

We believe, we believe

In the revelation of the Son of Man

We believe, we believe

The true Anointed One is coming again

[Verse 2 – same instrumentation, deeper intensity]

They heal the sick, they speak in tongues

But deny the message, the hour has come

The Laodicean church, rich and blind

Thinks she is rich, but she's left behind

[Pre-Chorus]

The midnight cry is sounding loud

"Come out of her, My people, come out"

The foolish virgins knock too late

The door is shut, the hour is great

[Chorus – bigger, add harmony layers & electric solo lead-in]

We believe, we believe

We are the anointed ones at the end time

Standing on the Word, we will not bend or climb

No compromise, no turning aside

We are the Bride, waiting for our Bridegroom's cry

We believe, we believe

In the revelation of the Son of Man

We believe, we believe

The true Anointed One is coming again

[Bridge – drop to piano + vocal only, then massive build with choir]

We are not moved by signs and wonders

We are not moved by crowds and thunder

We are anchored in the unchanging Word

We are the remnant, we are the Bride of the Lord
Let the false fire burn, let the tares be bound
We will stand alone on holy ground
The trumpet will sound, the dead will rise
We will meet Him in the skies!
[Final Chorus – huge, soaring, full choir & band]
We believe, we believe
We are the anointed ones at the end time
Standing on the Word, we will not bend or climb
No compromise, no turning aside
We are the Bride, waiting for our Bridegroom's cry
We believe, we believe
In the revelation of the Son of Man
We believe, we believe
The true Anointed One is coming again
[Tag – soft piano return, vocal ad-lib]
We believe...
The true Anointed One...
Is coming again...
We believe...
